Certificate

To Whom It May Concern

The Consulate General of Algeria in New York inform you that the Algerian authorities have decided, as an exceptional measure until December 31st, 2025, to allow Algerian children aged 15 years or younger, who hold an American passport and do not possess Algerian identity documents, to travel to Algeria accompanied by their parents or legal guardians, without a visa.

It is only required to present the child's original birth certificate or the judicial guardianship ruling.

This certificate is issued to serve the purpose it might be required.
