Certificate

The Consulate General of Algeria in New York would like to inform you that the Algerian authorities have implemented an exceptional measure until December, 31, 2026. This measure allows Algerian citizens holding a valid American passport to travel to Algeria by presenting either their expired Algerian biometric passport or their expired National Identity card.

Please note: Algerian nationals presenting these documents will not require a visa to enter Algeria.

This certificate is issued to serve the purpose it might be required.
